do not contain any provision for the payment of Salary & Subsistence allce in the place of pay as in case of deputation for the Police Training School for training. It is however reasonable in the circumstances to allow pay according to the rates laid down in this respect in appx I (Police Training School) in M in the Police Manual.

1 only Police Officer in the Executive line - Constable & above - may be deputed to the Police Training School for training Should fit for the pay during their stay in the school. No subsistence allce is admissible in the place of Constables sent to the School. In case of Daffadars, a staff allowance of Rs 3/- may be given to the Constables acting for the place. If Daffadars are deputed for training acting arrangement may be made as a cost does not exceed Rs 20/- per month. Number of Daffadars, Jemadars deputed for training not to exceed 20 at any time.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that 3rd Munshi, Abdul Habeeb Khan, of the Tumkur District Police office, is undergoing training in the Police Training School and the Deputy Commissioner reports that a substitute on Rs.20 has been entertained by him in place of the Munshi. Substitutes may be entertained in place of Inspectors, Sub Inspectors and Jamedars. This concession has been extended to the case of Police Head Munshis also (Vide Govt. Order No.12428/29 J.1542 dated 1st May 1899), but I see no reason why it should not be extended to other officials of the District Police office who are deserving of qualifying themselves for executive police service. The concession cannot be availed of by the Head Munshis as by the time they reach the grade, they would have become unfit for executive work. If any concession is to be shown, it should be shown to the younger people holding smaller appointments in the Police offices. Under these circumstances, I request that sanction of Government may be kindly obtained for the entertainment of a substitute on Rs.20 in place of the 3rd Munshi referred to above.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Dated 25th January 1881.

CIRCULAR ORDER. No. 753/28.

As the re-organization of the Police in the Province has now been fully carried out the Chief Commissioner deems it necessary to issue the following general instructions as to the scope and extent of the powers to be exercised by the Deputy Commissioners and Amildars in regard to the internal economy of the Force.

2. Powers of the Deputy Commissioner. Under these orders the Deputy Commissioner is empowered to appoint, dismiss and otherwise deal with all Inspectors in the executive force. In the event of a new nomination in the grade of Inspector the name of the nominee should be intimated to this office for note.

3. In regard to Head Quarter Inspectors and the three European Inspectors in the coffee taluks the Chief Commissioner reserves to himself the right of selection and nomination. Any misconduct or irregularity on their part will without delay be brought to the notice of the Chief Commissioner and orders solicited. When any of these Inspectors are desirous of taking leave a recommendation roll on such Inspector's behalf must be submitted for sanction. The Deputy Commissioner may grant any such Inspectors casual leave of not more than 3 days without reference.

4. Powers of Amildars. The Amildar as the responsible head of the Taluk Police may without reference to the Deputy Commissioner award black marks under orders, now in force to Duffedars and Peons as well as fine them. The fine in each case should not exceed 1/4 of the delinquent's salary. Punishment by fine should be seldom resorted to. The Amildar may suspend any one in these grades and report his action to the Deputy Commissioners for confirmation. For offences for which the punishment of reduction or dismissal is considered necessary the Amildar will detail for the information of the Deputy Commissioner in his diary, the full particulars of the case and solicit orders. In doing so the explanation of the party concerned should invariably be submitted. But the Amildars is authorized to reduce peons who have been defaulters more than thrice in the same year, without previous reference provided that he shall report what has been done. In respect of Inspectors and Jamedars the Amildar will only bring to the notice of the Deputy Commissioner instances of misconduct or irregularity which in his estimation deserve punishment and solicit orders. Should the conduct of the Inspector or Jamedar be such as to deserve a reprimand, the Amildar may record such censure and report the same for the information of the Deputy Commissioner.

5. Fines should not be excessive and should be resorted to seldom, it is preferable after due warning to have recourse to the punishment of suspension, degradation etc.

6. Nothing tends to make the service unattractive more than too frequent transfer of men from station to station. These changes and harass the men and destroy their usefulness and to prevent this as much as possible Amildars shall not without previous sanction make such transfer. There must be good grounds for such recommendation.

7. Resignations may be accepted by the Amildar and sent up to Deputy Commissioner for approval subject to rules prescribing 2 months notice.

8. Applications for appointments may be received by the Amildar and all applications together with the applicants shall be sent to the Head Quarters on such days in the month as the Deputy Commissioner shall direct for inspection and in view to their being placed before the medical authority for the necessary certificate of fitness fitness and the successful candidates shall be appointed to such vacancies as the Deputy Commissioner deems advisable.

9. The Amildar shall be at liberty to recommend deserving members of the force for promotion.

10. Privilege leave or leave on medical certificate may be granted according to rules by the Amildar to Duffedars and Peons. In no case shall casual leave exceed 3 days at a time and such leave should not be granted oftener than once in every quarter.

11. The Amildar shall not be at liberty to employ substitutes in the lower grades without previous sanction. The Deputy Commissioner may appoint peons to fill temporary vacancies of those who are on leave without pay. The number of men on leave shall not exceed 10 per cent of the strength not more than 20 officers in one taluk shall be on leave at the same time. In granting leave those producing a medical certificate to have the preference. In each case the Amildar should bring to the notice of the Deputy Commissioner his action in regard to leave in his diary.

Office of the Secretary, Police Department,
Bangalore, 11th December 1884.

Circular Order No.766-36.

The Dewan considers that the efficiency of the Police in the Province is susceptible of great improvement, and that an important step in this direction will have been made by having the supervision and control over the working of the Police in each District entrusted to an officer whose full attention can be devoted to the duty, at the same time that the Deputy Commissioners are as now strictly held responsible for the general condition of the Police Administration throughout their Districts. Such an arrangement is immediately called for at least in the large Districts of Bangalor Mysore and Shimoga where the Revenue duties of the Deputy Commissioner are heavy.

2. Whenever in any District an Assistant Commissioner is placed directly in charge of the Police of that District, the following rules shall come into force in that District:--

1stly. The Police Assistant Commissioner shall relieve the Deputy Commissioner of all routine and general Police work, carefully supervising and checking the operations of the Police in the District and guiding them to a prompt and correct discharge of their duties.

2ndly. Police Assistant Commissioners will dispose of all report and other communications received from Amildars, Inspectors and Investigating Officers seeking the instructions of the Deputy Commissioner in exceptional and important cases or when it is considered necessary.

3rdly. Police Assistant Commissioner will submit to this office through the Deputy Commissioner a Weekly Diary (on half margin) which should be a brief, yet comprehensive summary of all that he does and observes, day by day, in fact it should be a thorough business-like paper and give a lucid idea from confidential and detective sources of all that is going on relating to the Police, noticing briefly the duties on which the Police are engaged with a free expression of his opinion regarding the conduct of the Police subordinates under his charge.

4thly. Police Assistant Commissioners are authorized to appoint, dismiss, transfer and punish men up to the rank of Duffedar. Jamedars may be nominated by Police Assistant Commissioners but their final appointment shall rest with the Deputy commissioner.

5thly. The appointment, &c., of Inspectors will be made as heretofore.

6thly. All applications for employment will invariably be received by the Police Assistant Commissioner who will fix a date for the inspection of candidates either at the Taluk Head-Quarters or other convenient place.

7thly. Inspectors will submit their Diaries daily to the Assistant Commissioner through the Amildar, who, in forwarding the original may pass such remarks as may be needed. The Amildar need not submit a separate Weekly Diary, but all matters he may have to bring to notice and seek orders upon should be embodied in the column left for his remarks in the Inspectors' Diaries.

8thly. All Investigating Officers (Amildars, Inspectors, &c) will, day by day, submit their special Diaries to the Police Assistant Commissioner for orders. Inspectors and other Investigating Officers will submit their specia

Diaries to the Police Assistant Commissioner, through the Amildar, who will forward the originals as received at once with such remarks or suggestions as may be necessary.

9thly. The powers conferred on Amildars in para 4 of this Office Circular Order No.753-28 of 25th January 1881 are withdrawn These powers will now be exercised by Police Assistant Commissioners.

10thly. In the matter of punishments Amildars or Inspectors should recommend the same in the Inspector's General diaries for the orders of the Police Assistant Commissioner.

11thly. Resignations may be accepted by Amildars, subject to the prescribed two months' notice and forward to the Police Assistant Commissioner fororders.

12thly. Promotions should be given to deserving members of the force on the recommendation of the Amildar, or on that of the Inspector supported by the Amildar, but before doing so the Police Assistant Commissioner should satisfy himself that such recommendation is fair and just.

13thly. Amildars may grant to members of the force, in cases of emergency, leave not exceeding 3 days, reporting the same in the General Diary.

14thly. Privilege leave, leave on sick certificate, &c., may be granted according to rules by Police Assistant Commissioners on the recommendation of Amildars.

3. There is reason to believe that in most parts of the Province sufficient care is not taken in selecting good men to fill up vacancies in the Force. The Deputy Commissioners and Police Assistant Commissioners are therefore held responsible that no man of suspicious character is enlisted and that no one is allowed to remain in the force who may have been convicted of any grave crime. If there are any such men now, the force should be carefully weeded of them gradually.

4. Vacancies should be given only to such men as bear a good character and are physically fit and known to the Amildar or Inspector. In all enlistments preference should be given to local men, so that the force may command a local influence and means of local information. This is an important matter to which constant attention should be given by Deputy Commissioners and Police Assistant Commissioners.

5. Fines should never be excessive and should seldom be resorted to, as a fine is a very unsuitable kind of punishment to men on small salaries.

6. Frequent and unnecessary transfers of men should be avoided as they have a very demoralising effect upon the Force.

7. Police officers of all ranks must be employed on their legitimate bonafide Police duties alone, and never on Revnue or any other work. The Amildars should be held strictly responsible for the scrupulous enforcement of this rule.

8. The following only will in future be designated as heinous offences for which "First Information Reports" will be submitted to this office immediately on the receipt of a report:--

1. Murder and culpable homicide not amounting to murder.
2. Dacoity.
3. Highway robbery or robbery.
4. Serious affray and illegal assembly likely to lead to serious riots.
5. Theft or house-breaking and theft with any aggravated circumstances or in which property to the value of Rs.300 and upwards is stolen.
6. Counterfeiting Government stamps or coins.
7. Cases of poisoning.
8. Robbery by means of stupefying or poisonous drugs.
9. Serious riots.
10. Attempts to commit any of the above offences.
11. All cases in which Europeans are charged with any cognizable offences.

9. An Assistant Commissioner employed on Police duty may be deputed by the Deputy Commissioner, when necessary, for the settlement of the Jamabandi of one or two Taluks during the Jamabandi season. He may also be employed on the inspection of ~~taluks~~ or tanks and other inspection duty in localities which he may be inspecting in connection with his Police work.

With reference to your letter No. G. 15843-Pol.63-18-4 dated 29-1-1919, enquiring if it is not advisable to place some restriction upon the number of men that may be deputed for training in the Police Training School, I have the honor to state that Government Proceedings No.J.568-70/Pol.165-07-2 dated 21-8-1908 restricts the number of persons to be deputed for the training whether they be executive officers or ministerial officials, not to exceed 10 a year for the whole state and that in the case of ministerial officials deputed for training, substitutes can only be entertained if the officials so deputed happen to be the Head Munshy of the Office of the Superintendent of Police.

Under the above circumstances and in conformity with the views of the Deputy Commissioners who are all in favour of the proposal now made, I request that sanction of Government may be obtained to extend the above concession of entertaining substitutes to the other officials of the Superintendents office subject to the restriction that not more than one official is deputed at a time to the Police Training School and subject also to the general restriction that the total number of persons deputed for training, whether executive or ministerial, does not exceed the sanctioned number of 10 a year.

As the number of persons to be entertained as substitutes remains the same, there will be no extra expenditure to Government by granting the

S i r,

With reference to your letter No.G.2144 dated the 26th July 1919, I have the honor to state that to facilitate training in the Police Training School, Government have in their Order - No.364-65/J.F. 53 of '03 dated 11-8-'03 sanctioned the entertainment of substitutes on Rs. 20/- in place of Inspectors and Jamadars deputed for training and in No.1248-29/J.1542 dated 1-5-'99, - sanctioned the deputation of a Police Head Munshi, which in the next year was extended to another Head Munshi of the Bangalore District. It has since been the practice for deputing such - Head Munshies for training, substitutes on Rs. 20/- being entertained in their places.

2. The Deputy Commissioners who were consulted, are of opinion that all the munshies in the District Police Offices should be allowed to take their training in the Police School just as in the case of Head Munshies, so that they may have facilities for bettering their prospects and also for the improvement of the morale of the force. My predecessor, in his letter No.1830/118 dated 5/10-9-1918 having moved the Government to approve of the above proposal, Government directed to restrict the number of substitutes appointed in place of both the Executive officers and Munshies.

3. In Order No.568-70/P.165-07-2 dated 21-8-1908, referred to in my letter, Government sanctioned a sum of Rs. 960/- in addition to Rs. 1920/- to meet the pay of substitutes in consequence of the term of instruction having been extended from 8 to 12 months, thus making a total of Rs. 2880/-. At the rate of one Officer or official from each of the 8 Districts and 2 Circles, the number that may be sent for training every year would be 10 and the pay of substitutes at Rs. 20/- per man would be Rs.200/- per mensem or Rs. 2400/- per annum. Similarly, the number of Daffedars at 2 from each District and Circle, would be 20 every year and their locum tenens would draw an allowance of Rs2/- per month, which works out at Rs. 40/- per mensem or Rs.480/- per annum, thus making up the total of Rs. 2880/- which amount has been sanctioned as proposed and provided in the Budget for the pay of substitutes. The number of substitutes was consequently fixed at 10 in the case of both officers and officials, which number seems to be enough for the present and may be adopted and the privilege extended to both officers and officials in future without any extra cost being involved thereby.

4. Working on this basis, Deputy Commissioners of some of the Districts have applied to this office for sanction to entertain substitutes in place of those officials already deputed for training this year. I therefore request that very early orders of Government may be obtained in the matter.

Camp Mysore, 26th Septr. 1919

Dear Sir,

When in the file about employing substitutes in place of ministerial officials deputed to the Police Training School I noted my opinion yesterday, I had lost sight of the fact that there is now provision for the direct recruitment of Sub Inspectors and Inspectors. So I have changed my opinion and agree to the proposed draft.

In expectation of the proposals being sanctioned, some have already been deputed this year. In regard to them, I shall, if necessary, make a reference after the order is communicated to me.

Yours sincerely,
